Republican Nominee for State Representative of the 75th District David M^cAloon Announces Morris Press Conference To Launch "Agenda for Action"

Morris, IL... Republican nominee for State Representative of the 75th District David M^cAloon will be joined by local Republican leaders to unveil his "Agenda for Action", a seven-point agenda designed to get Illinois back on track. McAloon is joining the 51 incumbent House Republicans, and a small group of top tier challenger candidates, in supporting and promoting this positive agenda for change in Illinois government. "Giving Governor Blagojevich the same incumbents and the same Democrat majority in Springfield will guarantee the same problems will continue in Illinois that we've been experiencing the last few years," McAloon said.

In addition to a noon press conference, House Republicans are also hosting a free Town Hall meeting over the Internet at 6:30 pm. For those interested in viewing, please visit www.ilhro.com to watch the live Town Hall meeting and ask questions over the internet.
